ED. Of course the irrepressibles must be very indignant at the order to stop the shipments on the Nashville road without permit, and yet men who are not afflicted with the Secession insanity will not feel that any injustice is done to the Southern Confederacy. Kentucky should, herself, refuse all a proper feeling of self-respect, refuse all trade with these States. They have obstructed her commerce, taxed and blackmailed it, assumed the right to search even the trunks of her citizens, who are innocently traveling through. They seize our boats on the river, send back from Memphis goods shipped, and refuse to send cotton bought and paid for. They have defied the advice of Kentucky, and sneered at her interest, and congratulated themselves that they could drag Kentucky out of the Union, and thrust the war upon her soil to bring blood and desolation to her homes and firesides, whilst they would be safe at home. So necessary is the Mississippi to Kentucky, that she could hardly, in early times, rest contented in the Union without it; now she is coolly robbed of it by a people pretending to be her friends, whom she has defended and cherished for a quarter of a century. In addition, it is the great crime at the bottom of this insanity—the crime of robbing Kentucky of her country, that she appreciated at its inestimable value, which they, in their insanity, intend to destroy it. They give us no alternative, but to lose all we value in the Union, or submit to their tyranny over our business and interest, and accept war at our own homes, to gratify their passions of hatred and revenge. Why we should still want to keep up a trade with these people for anything but the mere profit, we don't see. Certainly they have done all a people could to awaken our resentment, instead of our sympathy. Until they restore our rights, which they have taken away, we ought to cut off all intercourse of trade with them. Assuming a state of war, they not only personally refuse to pay debts due to Kentucky, but their bogus Government forbids payment; and yet men get into an agony if restrictions are placed on trade at this point.

We do not know if this order of the Government is constitutional; that is not a question for us to decide. An Administration certainly has power to enforce the laws of the United States, and the law provides the troops to do it; and the President can use the ordinary means of war to do it; and the Constitution provides for his responsibility to the Senate of the United States. Our own opinion is, that these means are not adapted to the end. They weaken one side as much as the other; but Kentucky owes it to herself to stop trade with a people who treat her as an alien enemy, when she has done them no harm.

We have a small faction in this State who pride themselves on not being submissionists; but they don't care how these runaway States kick and run Kentucky. They seem delighted at the insults offered this Commonwealth. They seem to take delight in being insulted and kicked from that quarter. We never saw such Christian-like people. Smitten on one cheek, they not only turn the other, but any part of their interesting persons, to receive the same compliment. Already there is an' embargo at the other end of the road. We are to have no cotton or tobacco from that region, although it is bought and paid for. They will not even hear a remonstrance. The freedom of speech and of the press is stopped. Still we must feed and clothe them. Really, this cool impudence surpasses anything we read of.

To the People of Hardin County. —
Patriot. — The polite request that secession makes of Kentucky is that the Federal Government shall not be protected, and that ample and sufficient guarantees of the rights of property are given to the State, then they shall not be accepted, if the Cotton States order her not to accept.

The Secessionists consider that Missouri is invaded. Strange invasion. The men were enlisted in Missouri, officered in Missouri, and are Missourians; how then they invaded it, is matter inexplicable, except upon the plan that the Dutch have taken Holland.

The Savannah Republicans gives an account of how a Confederate steamer, with one gun, chased the whole United States navy from Savannah. That will do. We defy North, South, East, and West, and the telegraphers to trump that lead.

The Secessionists say that if the Government laid down its arms, Jeff. Davis would disband his forces. It's our opinion that without arms to defend the Capitol, its L. E. G. (elegy) would be all that would be left to trust to.

A friend says that Bickley, High Priest of the order of the Golden Circle, run the turnpike gate, near Jeffersonville, some months since, and asks what we think of it. Oh we think he is a run-a-gate!

EPIPHANY—On the late Major General Sterling Price, who fell at the battle of Booneville, June 17, 1861:

A beautiful flag was presented to Captain Treanor's company of Home Guards on Friday evening. It was made and presented to them by the married ladies of the First Ward.

The Mobile Register is getting disguised. It says the Governor of Alabama has appointed a Major General for life, in fact defiance of the State Constitution.

Since their crushing defeat in Kentucky, the Secessionists affirm that they are all for peace, and a mighty small piece of it their principles have.

The Brandon Republican states that in Smith county, Miss., the people are working out the crops of those who have gone to the war.

James Hite's kitchen was burned yesterday morning, and two negro children consumed in the flames. He resides in Jefferson county, near Hobbs Depot.

LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY: SUNDAY MORNING, JUNE 23, 1861.

NUMBER 291.

ED. Our Secretary of State calls Senator Johnson, of Tennessee, a traitor and a rebel against the people of his State. The word traitor, the irrepressibles ought not to use. It ought to be banished from their vocabulary. The Secretary stands about in the same relation to Kentucky. He is in the same sense a traitor and a rebel, and ought to dry up. Senator Johnson is a firm, headstrong man, who will not bend to the storm of folly, passion and fury that demagogues have got up. He will be honored when his traducers are forgotten.

HURRAH FOR BUTLER COUNTY!—1,035 for Jackson, 14 for Burch.—Butler county is close down on the Tennessee line, and has given the most overwhelming vote of any county in the State. They have faced the danger—Russellville, in Logan county, on one side, and all of the armed mob of Tennessee on the other. We do not often suggest the presentation of banners, or anything of that kind, but we do believe that it is the duty of the city of Louisville, the most exposed and perhaps the only exposed city in Kentucky, to give a magnificent banner to Butler county. Let every old Clay Whig and every Jackson Democrat make it his first duty to see that we have a meeting. Southern Kentucky has beaten Louisville. Let Louisville make a fair acknowledgment, and send down a banner to be carried forward in behalf of the Union in that county, in the coming canvas. Our friends are invited to meet at our office Monday evening, and make arrangements

FROM THE SOUTHERN PAPERS.—The New Orleans Crescent of Wednesday says:

The eighth regiment Louisiana volunteers, Col. Kelly, is to break camp this morning, and be away from Camp Moore to the battle fields of Virginia.

Numbers of companies have been enlisted in the State to serve in Louisiana.

The Crescent gives us an account of no less than five murders and several shootings and stabbings in that city on the 18th, together with robberies and assaults innumerable.

The Congress of the Confederate States passed an ordinance forbidding the payment of all due to States in the Union excepting Kentucky, Missouri, Delaware and Maryland, and makes agents collecting them liable to prosecution.

We have it from good authority that the first of the New Orleans and Liverpool line of steamers will leave the latter port in the month of August.

We shall have peace only when we can shew them (the United States) or imprison them into a recognition of our rights, and a reparation of their misdeeds.

N. O. Bulletin.

One company of mounted men left Henderson, Texas, for Arkansas on the 6th of June.

Don't become remiss now, Union men. Every day a battle is fought in men's opinions for the preservation of the State and the peace of the community. Shun all who make subterfuges by declaring for the Union, if they can get their rights, but they can't get their rights. It is a disunion sentiment, and is untrue to Kentucky. We will get our rights, we will save the country, and we will remain at peace. The Union cannot be broken up.

Unontown, Ky., was thrown into excitement last week by the rascality of two brothers, Samuel and Joseph Levi, who had succeeded in buying tobacco and borrowing money to the amount of fifteen or twenty thousand dollars, and then vanished. Their assets amounted to only one thousand dollars. The creditors gave Mr. James Wallace two thousand dollars to track them up. They have not yet been caught.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.—Captain W. H. Hedges, Union candidate for the Legislature, will address his fellow-citizens of Bullitt county at the following times and places:

June 28th, Knob Creek Church;
June 29th, Sedley;

July 1st, Sherrills;

July 2d, Barclay's Mills;

July 3d, Fine Tavern;

July 5th, Pitt's Point.

Judge Carpenter is invited to attend.

Speaking to commence each day at 2 o'clock p.m.

To the Voters of Hardin County.

Patriot.—I have been for some time past a candidate for a seat in the Lower House of the next General Assembly of Kentucky. Owing to important business engagements, I have been unable as yet to canvass the county.

During this time it has suited the selfish ends of certain interested parties to circulate extensively throughout the county a report that I have gone over to the secession party. This report is utterly false. I have done no such thing, nor have I said or done anything from which such a conclusion could be rationally or justly drawn.

I stand just where I and the Union party always stood, without the least shadow of turning.

As soon as the people have ended their harvest, it is my purpose to make a thorough canvass, and to meet the people of every neighborhood in the county, when they will have an opportunity of expressing their respective opinions.

All I ask is that the people shall hear me before they pass judgment against me.

M. H. COOPER.

PUNCH ON PATTI.—Punch, it seems, is taking care of little Patti. The joker says:

Describing the debut of Mademoiselle Patti, whose performance seemed to promise a second Jenny Lind, one of the critics made the remark that she raised the curtain to a high state of excitement.

On reading this, the Viscount, who chanced to be just then in one of his fatuous moods, observed to his friend Borsell: "Raised the house, did she? Why, really, then, she must be quite a Hoister Patti!"

The Colorado will be at no loss to comprehend the point of these observations. The high offence against society allotted to her was that of being a "free woman of a single tyrant and 'free the world from bondage'." But who is to chain the wild beast of popular passions when once escaped from the wholesome restraints of the law? Who can set bounds to the excesses of that "many headed monster," an infamed mob? It is to guard society against the dangers of mob law that governments and courts of justice are principally instituted, and no man who has studied human nature or read history that does not know how fearful a thing is to substitute the former for the latter. Nor can any enormity of crime in an actual individual pass unnoticed, but the greater crime against society of a mob judgment and execution. No single man has the power to inflict upon society a hundredth part of the evil that is perpetrated, when a blow is aimed at the sanctity of the law itself, in the arrogant and irresponsible assumption of its sacred functions.

Virtuous indignation against crime, patriotic wrath against the seditious enemies of one's country engaged in war against a ruthless enemy are natural and to be commended, but these virtues run into crimes when those engaged in them jostle the magistrates and a City Court which is open daily to examine charges. All good citizens will agree with us that it is before these accusations of this kind should be brought, and we are sure that all good citizens will sustain the authorities when they interpose to bring to justice those who dare to usurp the legal authority, with which they are invested by the Constitution and the Laws of the land.

We are informed that two young men are going about the city soliciting contributions for the Home Guard, and procuring money under false pretenses.
We caution the public against them. Let them know full well to whom their contributions are given.

Wm. Stanley, an orator of the Secessionists, who spoke at Shelbyville the before the election, was in 1858 elected City Attorney in Leavenworth City, Kansas Territory, by the Black Republicans. His competitor was a Democrat.

BENEFIT.—In the present dearth of amusements it is gratifying to know that we are to have an entertainment on next Tuesday which will command the attention of all amusement-lovers. Mr. Harry Watson, who will be favorably remembered as a young gentleman of fine promise, a good student, a deserving and industrious actor, and, whilst, a person of fine manners and good address, will on next Tuesday evening present his claims for a dramatic benefit at Mozart Hall. His assistants are Mr. and Mrs. Edwards, Mr. H. Cook, Miss Endress, and several other acknowledged favorites. Miss Endress will gratify the audience with a display of vocal power rarely equalled, and certainly not excelled by any lady in the city. It may be said of her as Terry said of Cleopatra:

"Her warbling voice, a lyre of widest range;
Struck by all passion, did fall down and scarce
From tone to tone, and glided through all change
Of liveliest utterance."

Mr. Watson's claim, supported as they will be by such a host of talented performers, cannot fail to be recognized by the whole public. We shall have occasion again to call attention to this subject.

AT A meeting of the "Crittenden

Corporal; E. H. Dunn, 2d Corporal; R. H.
Spaulding, 3d Corporal; W. S. Parker, 4th public are respectfully invited to attend.

Several speeches will be made on the occasion.

It has been suggested to us to call for the purpose of selecting a candidate to represent that District in the Legislature.

DEED OF HIS WOUNDS.—John Quigley, the MURDER.—A difficulty occurred in Cincinnati, Friday evening, between Patrick Toner and James Jones, which resulted in the death of the former from a stab inflicted by the latter. The two men, it seems, have been on bad terms with each other for some time. Toner lived but a short time after he was stabbed, the knife having entered the left side near the third rib and penetrated to the heart. He made no statement of the affair, and as no person saw the transaction but the wife of the accused, it may be difficult to ascertain exactly the extent of his (Jones') guilt.

MR. M. P. HOUNIQUIN, who was arrested sometime ago by Officer Richard M. Moore as a suspected felon and placed in the city jail, was demanded by the Governor of Ohio upon a requisition to answer a charge of forgery committed some ten years ago.
He passed up on the mail-boat yesterday, in charge of J. S. Hawkins, of Odo.

The Richmond Whig says that what ever shame and humiliation may be involved in the confession, the fact cannot be denied:
the Virginia forces behaved shamefully at Fairfax Court-house, and still more shamefully at Phillipi.

Some of the Madrid journals of the first of June, state that the discussions between Spain and Mexico, which at one time assumed a certain degree of gravity, are now almost certain to be satisfactorily arranged, and that M. Guilly Rente, who married one of the King's sisters, is likely to be sent on an extraordinary embassy to Spain.

Yester evening arrived from New York and Montreal. He informed me he has purchased about 2,000 Enfield and Sharpe's rifles, 600 Colt's navy revolver, 300 sabres, and three tons of powder. He brings with him as a trophy, a chain-shot taken from the private treasury of Savannah.

A spy was taken in the Pensacola
Navy Yard, a few nights since, in the act of exchanging signals with Pickens by means of lanterns. He was put in irons, but obstinately refused to give any account of himself.

Confederate service during the war.

The city outside of the water district has become very dusky. All the leading venues to the town are deep with dust.
Rain is needed in the city as well as in the country.

BUCKEY FOR 1861.

We have three hundred of these celebrated Macines for sale, manufactured especially for us. Every buckey we sell has been tested and found to be equal to 10 to 15 acres of grass or wheat. We have sold them for from side draft and wind on the horses necks as well as on.

WARRANTY.

We warrant the Buckeys to be well made, of the best materials, and to produce a larger quantity of grass or wheat than any other buckey of the same size, and to last longer. We will give a full description of the machine and other implements sold by us.

Daily Democrat*MEDICAL.*KNOW THYSELF!

Dr. MCGANN is a regularly educated Physician and surgeon to ascertain the true condition and locality of Disease in the human and animal system. His practice is limited to the treatment of Diseases of the Human and Animal System treated by Scientific Inspection and manipulation. His practice is simple and inexpensive. His fees—WEEKLY FEES—will be specially cured without the use of poisons or nostrums. Wounds and Diseases of the Human System are easily treated in the shortest possible time.

Females Diseases, &c.

Such as Suppressions, Irregularities, White, Yellow, or Greenish Discharge, Nervous Disease, Neuralgia, &c. Diseases of the Brain, Head, & Nerves, &c. We speak more directly of the Cervix, which is an ointment every family should have at hand.

We know it has no equal for the cure of frostbitten feet, chilblains, cracked or cracked hands or lips, and for sore nipples it is the only one thing required. If any person is afflicted with any disease where a good salve is wanted, we advise them to give Dr. Weaver's Cervix just one trial, and they will be convinced of its merits.

Dr. Weaver's Salve, with the Cervix, is a sure cure for all humors, sores, and diseases that arise from impurity of the blood.

Another valuable preparation is the old standard remedy and people's favorite, Perry Davis' Pain Killer. Our readers only want to know that this remedy is pure and genuine, and sold by all our city druggists.

Dr. S. O. Richardson's Sherry Wine Bitters is a very agreeable medicine, and suitable where a stimulating agent is required.

We know that all the above named remedies are just what the afflicted require, and they can be found at the drug stores generally.—Louisville Democrat, Feb. 16, 1860.

Sold by Raymond & Tyler.

COSTIVENESS OR HABITUAL CONSTIPATION From these afflictions arise many of the ills of man. We hear, daily, people complain of headache, nervous debility, &c.; and generally the cause of the complaint can be traced to their constipated habits. A remedy for the cure of this trouble is what they want. We recommend Dr. Richardson's Sherry Wine Bitters to all so afflicted; let them take it three times each day, half an hour before eating their meals, and in it they will find a cure. Our physicians recommend it in their practice, and its great merits are fast becoming known in the Western States. Sold by Raymond & Tyler.

MEMPHIS—Valuable information from the Rev. James S. Swan, a clergyman of distinguished attainments and exalted reputation:

New London, Feb. 1861.

Dr. S. A. WEAVER.—Dear Sir: I feel compelled by a sense of duty to the suffering, to say in relation to your Cancer and Salt Rheum, that I have used it in my family for more than one year with most decided happy results. I consider it adapted completely to sustain the reputation which is claimed for it. In a number of cases within my knowledge, where it has been taken for Erysipelas and Salt Rheum, it has been attended with complete success, when other remedies had completely failed. Sold by Raymond & Tyler.

CHEAP!*CHEAP!*CHEAP!*CHEAP!*FOR CASH!*J. M. ARMSTRONG,

On Main street, Louisville, Kentucky, is now offered his elegant stock of MEN'S AND BOYS' CLOTHING exclusively for Cash, at greatly Reduced Prices: BOYS' SUITS; CHILDREN'S SUITS.

A time when there is great fear that the stock of dry lumber, sash, doors, blinds, &c., will fall short, owing to the vast amount of improvements in Louisville, it will be interesting to the public to know that Alexander, Ellis & Co., have enlarged their factory and have now on hand several million of dry lumber. Call at their office on Main street, nearly opposite the Galt House, or at their factory on Fulton, above Preston street.

J. N. Collins sells the best of coal at his office, Third street, between Market and Jefferson. Give him your orders. dtf

We will call particular attention to McLean's notice in another column. We add the following to the St. Louis Herald, which speaks volumes in its favor. We say to all, give it a trial.

We take especial pleasure in recommending McLean's celebrated Strengthening Cordial as an invaluable remedy for general debility and weakness. We have seen it tested in a circle under our own immediate observation, and voice for which should be kept constantly in every family. It is certainly an invaluable medicine. See the advertisement in another column.

HOME TESTIMONY. INDEPENDENCE, Ky., Aug. 20, 1860. Dr. C. W. Roback, M. D.:

Dear Sir: For the past several months I have been laboring under great weakness and general debility, much of the time confined to my bed, and from which I received no benefit from my physician.

After using some of your blood pills and blood purifier, purchased of your agent, Mr. Wm. H. Plummer, I feel as a new person, almost entirely free from disease, and would recommend your medicines to all who are in need of so invaluable remedies.

Yours truly, MARY T. HOWMAN. This advertisement is another column. dtw

HOPKINSVILLE, Ky., August 27th, 1860. DR. SHALLENBERGER.—Dear Sir: I have to state that your Fever and Ague Antidote is daily growing in favor, and needs no puffing to recommend it, as its own merits are sufficient, wherever a trial has been made. I believe it has never failed where the administration has been proceeded with in accordance with the directions. It is a pleasure to sell medicines that meet the expectation of purchasers and give satisfaction, and as such I am proud to recommend your pills.

S. D. RUCK, Physician and Druggist, 59 Main Street, Louisville.

“More precious than rubies” is health, but if we believe the advertising columns of the papers no one need be without that great desideratum; the remedies are almost as numerous as the diseases themselves, each one of the former better than its companion. WRIGHT's REJUVENATING Elixir is a star of great magnitude among the myriad; it scarcely can be classed as a medicine, for it is pleasant to taste, exhilarating and invigorating in its action, and both harmless and effective in its operation upon the nervous, debilitated, worn or woe-begone victim of bad health and worse treatment. Throw away doctors' stuff and try this mighty elixir.

Salve all conceivable drugs throughout the United States and Canada. J. WRIGHT & CO., sole proprietors, New Orleans, Louisiana. See advertisement.
